SUPERVISOR SUPPORT

AUECO is a member driven organization and encourages active participation by all members. Although a set time commitment is not a requirement for membership, AUECO encourages all prospective members to discuss this professional time commitment with their immediate supervisor prior to submitting their membership application. Please check the box below to indicate if you have discussed joining AUECO with your supervisor and have received her/his support for membership and related time commitments.

I have discussed my AUECO membership application with my supervisor who is aware of the professional time commitment that comes with active participation and supports my membership in AUECO.

SUBMISSION INSTRUCTIONS:

1. Please answer all questions.
2. Sign the completed application (electronic signatures are acceptable).
3. Email the signed version of the application and any optional supporting files (job descriptions, resume/CV, org charts) to aeucomembership@gmail.com.

Please direct any questions regarding AUECO membership or the submission process to the Membership Chair at aeucomembership@gmail.com.

Thank you for your interest in AUECO!

¹Please note: For the purposes of AUECO membership you are considered to have main responsibility for international trade compliance if:

- You are an "empowered official" for your institution as described in 22 CFR 120.25;
- You are the only person at your campus who reviews and resolves international trade compliance issues (typically as an "other duties as assigned" function);
- The majority of your time is dedicated to international trade compliance functions (training, outreach, administration, management, etc.);
- You are specifically tasked or have the express authority to review and investigate international trade concerns and/or determine how international trade compliance concerns are managed and mitigated for your institution; or
- You directly or indirectly manage those who do the above job functions.
